

Harold Lee Stephens

October 7, 1963 - January 12, 2010

HAROLD L. STEPHENS II, son of the late Anna McDuffie and Harold L. Stephens, was born on October 7, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 12, 2010 after a brief illness. He was educated in the Baltimore City school system and later went on to get his GED. Harold worked various jobs until 2001 when he started working at Good Samaritan Hospital. Harold was employed at Good Samaritan until his death. In 1997, he met Tanya Bellamy. On August 31, 2000 they were united in marriage. They had one child Nia Imani (and his favorite son, his miniature pincher Max). They were inseparable especially at TV time. Harold later joined New Antioch Church where his Tanya had been a member since childhood. Harold was a quiet introspective soul. He was well liked and loved spending time with family. Nia and Tanya were his world. Sunday football with his brother-in-law Charles Bellamy and nephew JaWan Armstrong was the highlight of the winter season. Harold was Tanya's world, her lover, her soul mate, and best friend. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Tanya Bellamy-Stephens and daughter, Nia Imani Bellamy; two brothers, Rodney McDuffie and Michael Stephens, who preceded him in death; three sisters, Cassandra, Marchiel and Paul McDuffie; four brothers-in-law, Charles Bellamy (Dallas), Larry Bellamy, Dwain Williams, and Jefferson Harold (Vivian); sisters-in-law, Donnette Bellamy, Wanda Williams, and Shelia Wright; one special aunt, Betty Julius; a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. I did not know Mr. Harold but I know the sorrow and grief that comes with losing a loved one to death. Please be assured that very soon this sorrow will no longer exist. God promises that "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3,4) and He provides the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death. As we await the wonderful fulfillment of this promise, may you continue to find comfort, not only in your precious memories, but also from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)###imported-begin###G. Winston###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). The Bible provides us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon, "He will actually swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in Jehovah the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
