“ Its September 6,2024 4:45 am and I am so deep in thought about you. Its been so many times I wish I could talk to you and hear your positive input with that big smile. You were my heart and I know it was by purpose for me to meet you. I know TJ (super baby) the name you gave him still talk about you and he was just turning one. You know you had a special gift from God for every body you came in contact with so I thank God I was one of those people as well as my baby grandson and ALL of my family.The joy you bought into my life is everlasting and I miss you so much. There is not another like you so I guess I will be alone until we meet again.(I thinks I might have to wait in line). I can still see your face, hear you say "Gods got it, listen to music we would play and feel the vibe, smell the cologne you wore and close my eyes like you are here, Just know I loved you 100% in spite of the obstacles. Rest on My Love(Harold )and watch over me and super baby. Well always miss and love You.

“ The best friend anyone could have. It's been 9 years and 9 months since you left us. I think about you every single day. Life just not the same without you but memories keep you in my heart and looking at pictures 2006 birthday get together (all black and white) with Your second family make us all smile. Missing you forever until I see your face again, I LOVE YOU. Cowboys just can't get it together anymore but that's still our team.

“ Dear family of Harold.I am very sorry about your lost. Death is never an easy thing to go through. The bible tells of a time when we will get a chance to see our dead loved ones again at John 5:28,29##imported-begin##A. Jones##imported-end##

“ I'm blessed to have known a loving devoted friend like you because you were a true friend toward my husband Nipsy throughout the good times and bad. I'm sitting here crying because we had so many memorable times together and love you like a brother. Words can't explain what impact you had on me from your beautiful smile to your positive outlook on life. I going to miss you so much but I know you'll always be Nipsy and I "Guardian Angel" Love Always Angie##imported-begin##Mrs. Angela Derricott##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Dear family, please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. I can imagine the pain you are feeling now, because death is so unfair and so hurtful especially when someone is so young as your Harold was. I know, because I too lost a son at a young age, and it had a deep and lasting impact on my family. What helps us to cope, and also brings joy to our hearts is the bible knowledge that we will see him again. This is Jehovah's promise, and everything he says will be fulfilled. He promises at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever, and at 2nd Peter 3:13, and Rev 21:4,5 to bring about a peaceful new world where sickness and death will be nothing but a memory. If we are faithful, we all can share in this wonderful hope of being reunited with our dead loved ones again. May the bible promises comfort your family, and give you the strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
