

Harold W. Staley Jr.

January 24, 1941 - March 19, 2013

HAROLD W. STALEY JR. "Goon", son of the late Elizabeth G. and Harold W. Staley Sr., was born on January 24, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 19, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. Upon the completion of his education he served in the United States Army and worked many years for the Mass Transit Administration and Greater Baltimore Medical Center.

Harold made numerous friends wherever he went. He loved to talk about sports and his family. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. Harold was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a host of family and friends.

“ Dear Family and Friends,

It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God's Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God's purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

“ To the Family and Friends of Harold W. Stanley Jr.,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have losted a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.

“ Dear Family/Friehda:

On behalf of Pearl Jackson and the entire Jackson Family (formerly of 5303 Denmore Avenue), I wish to express our condolences on your recent losses (Liz and Goon). They shall forever be loved and missed by all. Our families (The Becketts and Jackson) were like one family. Therefore, Gwen and I knew the children long before they knew themselves. May God embrace you all during this time of sadness and grant eternal peace and rest to your loved ones. Remember, weeping endures for a night, but JOY comes in the morning. God Bless you all.

Dear Goon,

You will remain in my heart forever as I remember our formative years that had so many good memories that are just ours. We grew up together and I know we always loved each other. I have missed you for a long time; however, I know now you are at peace. Say hello to your mother (my loving aunt) and sisters (Goby, Dee), my mother and Nan.

*Loving Cousin,
Angie*
