

Harriet E. Johnson

December 12, 1921 - November 26, 2004

Harriet Ellen Morris Johnson began her sojourn here on December 12, 1921 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the second of two children born to the late Theophilus Elliott and Arda Morris. After a lengthy illness, God called her from labor to rest. Her earthly journey was completed on Friday, November 26, 2004. She was nurtured and taught by her grandfather John Morris; aunt Bertha Harried and her sister Esther. Harriet's formal education began in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She met and married the late Frank Johnson and they became the proud parents of eight children. Harriet was a dedicated, devoted and loving mother. "Who can find a virtuous woman; for her price is far above rubies." – Proverbs 31:10 At an early age, Harriet accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior. She joined the Church of God in Christ. In 1993, Harriet united with the Wilson Park Christian Community Church under the Pastorate of Rev. Roselyn Blake Ushry, the daughter of one of Harriet's best friends, the late Evangelist Dorothy Louise Blake. She was a faithful and diligent member. Harriet was employed with the United States Postal Service in Washington, D.C. In 1990, after serving nineteen years, she decided to retire. Harriet enjoyed several hobbies, especially sewing, crocheting, and working with ceramics. On occasion she would alter or mend the Pastor's robes. Harriet loved to travel. She traveled extensively to Canada, California and Mexico, etc. Whenever the Pastor and Church would go out to other churches for fellowship, Harriet would be right there supporting the church she loved. Harriet leaves to cherish her memory: five sons, Arthur (Joyce), Harry,

Robert, George (Cheryl) and Randolph (Ann); three daughters, Mary Gray (Iszard), Marlyn Johnson and Audrey Jones (Eugene); one sister, Esther Morris; twenty-two grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, seven great-great-grandchildren, a host of nephews, nieces, extended relatives and friend and her loving church family of Wilson Park Christian Community Church.
