

Harriett A. Bostick

September 21, 1914 - March 10, 2003

On Monday, March 10, 2003, Harriett Bostic was touched by God's hand and passed quietly to eternal rest. Harriett was born September 21, 1914, Magothy, Maryland, the daughter of Henson and Serena Richards. As a youth, Harriett joined the Magothy Church. Her education was obtained in the public schools of Anne Arundel County. As a young woman she came to live in Baltimore. Harriett was married to Charles Bostic who preceded her in death. They had no children of their own, but nieces and nephews brought happiness and joy into their lives. Working as a nurse's aide fulfilled her life. She also did domestic work for many families. To forever cherish her memory are her devoted nieces Roberta Hartwell and Patricia Le Compte; and abundance of great nieces and great-great nieces and nephews and other relatives.
