

Harriett Jiggetts

December 20, 2011

HARRIET JIGGETTS, better known as Aunt H., one out of eleven sisters and brothers, of the late Henry and Mary Williams.

Aunt H. was born on December 30, 1909 in Norlina, North Carolina and departed this life on December 19, 2011 at 1:30 a.m. After a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Warrenton High School. After graduation, she worked for Dr. Foster for a long time, twelve to fifteen years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in North Carolina. She was the secretary for sometime.

She met and married Earnest Jiggetts. Out of this union they had no children. Earnest preceded her in death. She went north to help her sister Eva's kids (Eva passed sometime ago). Then she came to Baltimore to live with her sister, the late Deaconess Hannah Taylor and joined Faith Baptist Church. At First Baptist in North Carolina, she sang, but from her seat. She worked for Saint Joseph Hospital with her sister, the late Mattie Jones from which she retired from.

She was always smiling because she has always trusted in God and God has been good to her. Her favorite scripture was Psalm 23: "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want..."

She leaves to mourn: nieces, nephews, so many to name; and friends.

“ *Good bye Aunt H, We will miss your smile, and advice
I remember when I was little girl you teaching me to iron the old fashion way with starch
I know you are in the hands of a loving God

“ My deepest sympathy to the family on the loss of your loved one. In time your hearts will heal leaving you wonderful memories of the love who have known.(John 5:28,29)

M. Johnson - December 26, 2011 at 10:10 AM

“ May the peace God's promise offers help to ease your grief. And may he always be by your side. Deepest Sympathy (isaiah 51:12)

M. Johnson - December 23, 2011 at 08:34 PM

“ *I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time .
Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.*
