“ What I wouldn't do to have you back and in your joyful spirit. Mommy and Caleb have been grieving since you left. I think I'm holding alot in because idk how it will come out if I attempt to decompress. Just know there's a void where you belong

“ To the family, MY HEART IS BROKEN, SO I CANNOT IMAGINE HOW YOU ARE DOING! MAY THE LORD KEEP HIS LIGHT ON YOU ALL, ALWAYS!!! I went to college with Harriett, and she always referred to me affectionately as, TROUBLE MAKING ISAAC! LOL. Whenever we wanted to leave class early, I would always come up with a workable reason. We would laugh all the way to my house, then plan for our next scheduled classe. Smile, We attended both Sojourner Douglass and Coppin together. We graduated from both colleges together. I WILL TRULY MISS MY FRIEND!!! MY HEART CRIES FOR MY FRIEND, MY SOUL REJOICES FOR HER BEING AT PEACE, AND FREE! YOU WERE A GOOD FRIEND HARRIETT, I WILL CHERISH YOUR MEMORY. WE GAVE THOSE PROFESSORS HELL! LOL, YOU ARE TRULY MISSED MY FRIEND. LINDA ISAAC

“ She wasn't just any woman....she was the director of childcare at Terryanne and Gio's daycare....she wasn't just any woman, she was a woman full of genuine love for children; less than 24 hrs before, on Friday during my 1230 lunch break we were on the phone together as she expressed genuine concern regarding Gio's reflux issues....before hanging up the phone, already a minute past my break time being over, I paused but before hanging up the phone, I thanked her for showing and providing such genuine concern and love for Gio and Terryanne. Little did I know that would be our last conversation, and I am so thankful that I took that one extra minute to thank Ms. Harriett....goes to show that we need to express our gratitude and kindness every day because we never know when our time, or anyone's time is up.....we miss you so much Ms.Harriett.....its not the same.....much condolences to the family....
