

Harry A. Smith

September 5, 1927 - March 2, 2002

Harry Alexander Smith Sr., the son of the late Reverend Angus Alexander Smith and the late Evelyn Lenora Smith, was born on September 5, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. Harry, also affectionately known as Smitty, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. At the age of nineteen, he was inducted into the United States Army. From 1947 to 1992, he was employed by the United States Postal Service for forty-five years. Harry was a dedicated and faithful employee who enjoyed the service he provided to the many residents of Baltimore City. He was raised in the spirit of the church. Memorial Baptist Church was the spiritual house he would come to know, love and worship in during the span of his life. On June 17, 1950, in a ceremony conducted by his father, he was joined in holy matrimony to Anniebell Fagan. Of this union three children were born Rebecca, Harry Jr. (Jay) and Glenn. He was a devoted and loving husband and father. After a long illness, in which Harry fought a good fight, God gently closed his eyes and called him home. With the support of his faith he instilled in his children and family the attribute of perseverance. Even in the face of adversity, he did not give up or dwell in self-pity. He trusted in the faith of the Lord and shared his beliefs with all that would listen. His kind spirit and mild manner will be greatly missed. Left with loving memories of a devoted loved one are: his wife, Anniebell Smith; one daughter, Rebecca J. Smith-Wilson; two sons, Harry A. Smith Jr. and Glenn A. Smith; four sisters, Dorothy Smith, Rita Hatcher, Lenora Bevins and Evelyn Branche; four brothers, Paul Smith, David Smith, Phillip Smith and Angus

Smith; five sisters-in-law, Veronica Smith, Jackie Smith, Ruth Smith, Shirley Smith and Viola Pinder; one brother-in-law, Thomas Fagan; one daughter-in-law, Wanda Smith; nine grandchildren, Rachael, Jason, Tierra, Alexandra, Toya, Tonya, Amanda, Harry and Roxanne; two great-grandchildren, Ryan and Rashad; nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.
