“ Harry Cornelius Butler

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the family of Cornelius Butler. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without our loved one; but, the love and support of family and friends can help ease your pain and sorrow. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and pain will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be any more. The former things have passed away." Psalms 37:9, 10, 11, 29 helps us appreciate that we will have an opportunity to see our deceased loved ones again in the coming paradise on earth, under peaceful and righteous conditions. I hope that these scriptures provide comfort for your family.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your family at this time. In times of distress, we need comfort that soothes our heart, our mind and our emotions. I found comfort in the words of 1 John 3:19-22; 5:14, 15.

M. Hodge - July 23, 2013 at 08:35 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
