

Harry E. Brown

January 5, 1933 - May 7, 2007

Harry E. Brown, son of the late Edward and Angie L. Brown, entered into the world on January 5, 1933 in Nelson County, Virginia. God called him home on May 8, 2007. Harry attended the public school system in Virginia. Later he met and married Annie B. Turner and from this union five children were born. After coming to Baltimore, Maryland in 1966, he worked for Harbor Sales. Harry continued with his career as a professional truck driver. He worked for Allied Van Lines, Lighting Trucking Company and his last job was with Container Port. Following the dissolution of his marriage. He met and fell in love with Eva Hughes they united in marriage on July 17, 1968. Harry was a happy and jolly person, full of life, always ready to make you laugh, Harry made friends wherever he went. He was always ready to help whenever and wherever there was a need. Harry leaves to cherish his memory: his loving devoted wife of thirty-eight years, Era Brown; four children, Rebecca, Harry Jr., Jessie and Angie Brown (one son preceded him in death); stepdaughter, Renee; daughter-in-law, Lenora; stepson, Larry; twelve grandchildren, Donald, Michelle, Jessica, Danielle, Jawan, Brandon, Walter, Lita, Belita and Celita and two granddaughters in Florida; seventeen great-grandchildren, four brothers-in-law, two sisters-in-law, cousins and a host of friends. The smile you gave and the joy you brought meant a lot to me. I just didn't want to see you go. Just as the starshine every night, I will never forget your loving smile that shined so bright. Even in your last days, you were thinking more of your family than yourself. I will always hold a space in my heart for you. I Love You, Your wife, Eva

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello! Brown's! May I take this opportunity to send my condolences to you all. When we lose a dear one in death it breaks the family circle. Our heavenly father cares and know how you all are fairing since it has been a little over a year .The bible help us so much heal the wound of death. (1Cor.15:26) Death will be brought to nothing, gone forever. May looking forward to better times help you all to cherished the memories of Mr.Harry. Sincerely, Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
