

Harry E. Gibbs, Jr.

April 4, 1924 - October 29, 2012

HARRY EUGENE GIBBS, JR., also known as Gene and Popo, son of the late Harry Eugene Gibbs, Sr. and the late Rose Stokes. Gene was united in marriage to the late Shirley Elizabeth Gibbs. Before departing this life, he lived his last days at the loving home of his daughter, Bernadette and the Hospice Hospital. He was called home to be with the Lord on October 29, 2012.

Popo served in the United States Army during World War II, between the years 1943-1946. He served his country with dignity, pride and honor. He also worked at Bethlehem Steel upon his discharge for twenty years until his retirement.

Popo was a very loving and caring person. He was also a very devoted father, grandfather and friend. He loved nothing more than to watch his western on his black and white TV. Everyone knew when he called out Shirley, he was calling on his baby girl, Bernadette. No one, I say No one took care of him like his Shirley..

From the union of Shirley and Harry's marriage, whom will always be cherished: five daughters, Delores, Anita, Bernadette, Edna and Sharon; four sons, Sherman, Walter, Augustus and Harry Gibbs, III; twenty-four grandchildren, thirty-six great-grandchildren and a special great-grandchildren, Areyonna Patterson; sister-in-law, Catherine Miller; two brothers-in-law, Robert and Milton Frazier; three son-in-law, three daughters-in-law; and many other relatives and friends. Gene will also leave a memory with two very devoted friends, Joseph frazier and Frank Hickman

“ Dear Gibbs Family;

Please accept my sincerest condolences for your loss and while I did not know Mr. Gibbs personally, I was saddened to hear of his passing. I know he was loved and will be sorely missed. At Psalms 90: 9,10 the Bible says, “We have finished our years just like a whisper. In themselves the days of our years are seventy years; and if because of special mightiness they are eighty years...” Mr. Gibbs lived to be 88 years surely he was under that “Special Mightiness”. While losing him is sad, I hope you will find comfort in the scriptures. The Bible also teaches us about a resurrection, it says there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous (Acts 24:15) God is so loving, he knew we would need help when someone we love dies, that is why he gives us hope... the hope of one day seeing our loved ones again. This is called The Resurrection Hope. Jesus provided a foregleam of this hope when he resurrected his friend Lazarus. [John 11:38-44] Please review these scriptures in your personal copy of the Bible. And may Jehovah, the God of all comfort, be with you during this difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3) (Psalms 83:18)

*Sincerely
Sister Hughes*
