

Harry J. Jackson

July 4, 1946 - January 31, 2005

Harry J. Jackson Jr., son of the late Harry Jackson and Mary E. Jackson, was born on July 4, 1946. He departed from this life on January 31, 2005 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Edmondson High School in Baltimore. At the age of seventeen he became employed part time for a delivery company. His birthmark was a car and his dream was to drive, so he decided he was going to be a transporter of people. He married the former Rosalita Stone and of this union he had three stepdaughters, Nacole, Tracey and Tierra. He also had two daughters, Lashawn and Lashell, from a previous relationship. Harry made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Rosalita Stone; two daughters, Lashawn Darnell and Lashell Darnell; three step-daughters, Nacole Stone, Tracey Stone, and Tierra Stone; one sister, Delores Gwynn; ten grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The Bible rightly calls death our "enemy" at First Corinthians 15:26. That same verse assures us that death will be destroyed. What hope is there for our loved ones who have died? Acts 24:15 declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." May you find much comfort, strength and hope from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##
