

Harry J. Scott

April 5, 1947 - April 11, 2008

Harry Scott Jr., better known as Jackie, was born on April 5, 1947 to Daisy Scott and the late Harry Scott Sr. He was called home on April 11, 2008 after a sudden illness. Jackie was one of six boys and two girls. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He also had certificates of achievement in adult literacy and life skills and numerous certificates from Source of Light Schools for Bible Correspondence courses. Jackie worked various jobs in his young adult life. His greatest job came late in life. Jackie assisted his sister Boobie in the care of his parents and brothers, giving all of himself to insure that quality home health care was provided to his family. On the job 24/7, he was very dedicated in the things he had to do. Jackie was a very loving and a very humorous person, loving most that he came to know, always making a joke about any situation. He was well known for his nicknaming of people that came in his close circle. Taking their name and putting a humorist handle on their name like: Box, Egg, Pee-Wee, Winch, Wizzel, Woof, Buzzard, DJ, Bink, Smash, Moon-Man, Blob, Woody, Just to name a few. He was a person that could light up a room, always in good spirits and enjoying life to the fullest. We shall surely miss him on earth but we know in our heart of hearts that our heavenly Father will love his presence in heaven. He leaves to mourn; his mother, Daisy Scott; daughter, Amber; five brothers, Russell (Phyllis), Leonard (Angie), Keith, Glenn (Lowand) and Brain; two sisters, Delores (Randolph 0 and LaShore; granddaughters, Kijuana Watkins; two uncles, three aunts, a host5 of niece, nephews, other relatives and friends, including a very close and devoted friend Rochelle. Jackie's family members who have preceded him in death are; his father, Harry Scott, Sr.; daughter, Jackie Watkins; niece, Denise; and nephews, Glenn (Fingers) and Steven. Jackie will surely be missed by family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Harry J. Scott

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Dear Scott Family, I hope there are times when you visit this website for continued encouragement. Harry's death was unexpected and that's how death is sometimes. The bible speaks of unforeseen occurrences; and death, our enemy is an unforeseen occurrence, It denies us the continued joy of having loved ones around. But know this, the Bible speaks of a resurrection, a time when all those in the grave will hear his voice (Jesus) and come out! Please, as soon as you can, inquire of what is required to gain life. Visit your local Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, ask for a free home bible study and be on your way to one day seeing Harry again. John 17:3 speaks of taking in accurate knowledge, of both Jehovah and his son Christ Jesus - these are the keys to life.##imported-begin##Hughes##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I send my deepest condolences to the Scott family at this time. Losing a loved one is the hardest thing that we go through in life, and it is something that no family should have to endure. God does not want people to die, because he is the source of all life, and he hates death. That is why at Rev 21,4 he had recorded: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Whenever Jehovah God purposes something; he always sees it through until his will is accomplished. Isaiah 55:11 tells us that his word will never return to him without results, and will have certain success in that for which I have sent it." So his purpose to have a world of peace with no sickness or death will come to pass, and most importantly his purpose to have his son Jesus bring the dead back to life. John 5:28,29 May this wonderful hope of the resurrection be an anchor for your soul, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. Scott. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hi Scott's ! I would like to express condolence to all, the family and friends.Lossing a dear loved one hurt and pain the hearts.Imagine the tears of happiness to be our when when the dead are raised to life on a paradise earth as the bible say at Matt.6:9-11, for God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven, there is no dying in heaven is it, No. I am looking forward to that happening. I hope knowing that others cares help in healing the mind and heart.##imported-begin##I.C.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM