

Harry E. Knox

August 24, 2012 - November 3, 2012

HARRY EVERETT KNOX, son of the late William Knox and Sadie (Sarah) Sewell was born on August 24, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. He went to be with the Lord on November 3, 2012.

He was baptized and confirmed at St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church. He was educated in the Baltimore Public school system, attending # 453 High School where he earned Culinary skills.

Harry was employed at Double T Diner on Route 40 for many years to help his mother and siblings. His last job was working in other's homes, cleaning, cooking and catering.

Harry enjoyed bringing family together and famous for cooking, sewing, lovingly sharing stories, making you laugh no matter how bad you were feeling

Harry was a fighter during his illness, always ready to praise the lord. Often when you asked how he was feeling, he always replied, Fine, thanks the Lord.

He made friends wherever he went and would give you his heart if he could. Harry did what the Lord asks of us, he clothed the naked, he fed the hungry and helped the needy. Thanks be to God for Harry, who will be truly missed and loved by all.

His memory will be cherished by: his loving brother, Joseph Knox; sister, Gloria Knox Barber; godson, Gregory Satorie; special friend, Valarie Coleman, Bernard Jones, Mary Carr, Pastor Simmons and wife; Ms. Gross and the Blums; and a host of cousins, Nieces, nephews and friends..

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Losing a loved one is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
