

Harry L. Bright

December 29, 1920 - April 30, 2005

Beginnings: Harry Lee Bright, son of the late William Franklin Bright and Sally Ann Harris, was born December 29, 1920 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. After the passing of his mother at an early age, he was raised by his paternal aunts, Bertha Bright Broadnax, Martha Bright Johnson and Nellie Bright Doswell. He received his formal education in Baltimore, Maryland. His Journey Through Life: Harry worked at Bethlehem Steel in Sparrows Point, Maryland for thirty-seven years. He was an avid member of the Masonic Temple here in the city. He also was a member of the "Super 20's." Harry had many interesting hobbies which included "watching the horses at Pimlico" and playing cards with his best friends Pete and Evelyn Peterson. His personality was always bubbly and he went out of his way to tell a joke to make you laugh. He was always of good cheer; and when family members came to Baltimore, he always made them welcome to stay at his home until they "got on their feet." Early Saturday morning, April 30, 2005 after a lengthy illness, God called His beloved son Harry home. His Ending: Harry is survived by: his faithful and loving wife, Carrie; three daughters, Devera, Michele and Lynette; son, Cameron (son Kevin preceded him in death). With his marriage to Carrie he inherited four children, Arica, Cathy (and Leslie and Sharon who preceded him in death); eight grandchildren, Cerelle, Hasan, Tirini, Hakim, Meredith, Mosheh, Brandon and Brittany; twelve great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandson. Among the survivors are a host of loving relatives and many friends.

“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one. The scripture at Isaiah 26:19 says “Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, YOU residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of mallows, and the earth itself will let even those impotent in death drop [in birth]. I hope will find comfort in this scripture knowing that you have the hope of seeing your dead loved one again.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family & Friends: I am sorry to learn of your recent loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. May you find comfort in Almighty God promise of a "resurrection" Acts 24: 15. Yes, all those who are in God's perfect memory will be brought back to life in a beautiful "paradise" earth, Luke 23: 43. I pray that you rely on the "God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations", 2 Corinthians 1: 3,4.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
