

Harsen Brunson

August 9, 1935 - May 12, 2012

Harsen Brunson, son of the late Isaiah Brunson and Eva Mack Brunson, was born on August 9, 1935 in Manning, South Carolina. He departed this life on May 12, 2012 after a brief illness. Harsen was preceded in death by two brothers, Alburtus and Robert; and two sisters, Videlle and Wilhemina.

He received his education in the public school system of Manning, South Carolina. Harsen moved to Baltimore, Maryland to pursue a trucking business. He later became employed at Sparrows Point by the Arundel Corporation and a member of the Teamsters Union until he retired.

He married the former Bernice Robinson and out of this union two children were born, Angela and Harry.

Harsen made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him, especially his fishing and hunting buddies. He was a true hunter and avid fisherman.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Bernice E. Brunson; daughter, Angela B. Harrington (Warren); son, Harry A. Brunson (Tia); stepchildren, Linwood R. Neaves and Deloris L. Neaves-Curley; sisters, Ida Mae David and Lucille Tyler; two special nieces, Ernestine McDonald and Dorothy Ross; grandsons, Branden Brown, Marvin Moore, Marquese Moore and Cahz Brunson; eight step-grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren; nieces, nephew and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
