

Hartley Leroy House

August 3, 1949 - April 26, 2015

Hartley L. House was born on August 3, 1949 to Floizene L. House and the late Elma Hilston in Baltimore Maryland. He took his heavenly flight on April 26th 2015. His religious training was done in Mt. Mariah Baptist Church and New House of Hope Baptist church where his parents were ministers. Hartley was formally educated in Baltimore City Public School Systems and graduated from Edmondson High School. Hartley furthered his education at the Community College of Baltimore and graduated from Coppin State College in 1976.

A scholar and an athlete, Hartley excelled in baseball during high school and college years playing for his school teams as well as various amateur leagues throughout the city. He eventually found joy in coaching as well. Hartley pursued a career where he could give back to the city he loved and was gainfully employed by the Baltimore City Department of Parks and Recreation and well as a correctional officer.

He is survived and blessed with two sons Twone Beasley and Jiovan Purviance whom he loved dearly. He also leaves to cherish his memory, Melissa Beasley daughter-in-law, two granddaughters Milan Purviance and Ryan Beasley, his Brother Johnny lee Hilton (who preceded him in death), his three sisters Jo-Anne Lemon, Julia Mayden, Beatrice Allen (brother in-law Maurice Allen), his sister in law Caroline Hilton, and his two aunts, Mazaline

Maddison and Lila Mae Jones and a host of nieces nephews and cousins.
Special thanks to devoted friend Tyrone Mercer and other extended family.

“ Hartley Leroy House

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ The thing that stood out to me most about Hartley is that he was named for our grandfather, Hartley House and my dad, Albert, whose middle name is Hartley. I learned that some years ago when my dad brought Hartley and his dad Leroy to my our home in Spring Valley, NY.

My sincere condolences to my cousins and all of us.
