

Harvey Damion McCowan

February 17, 1937 - February 2, 2015

HARVEY DAMION McCOWAN, one of sixteen children of the late Phillip Thomas and Ethel Mae McCowan (Smith), was born in Lexington Kentucky on February 17, 1937. On February 2, 2015, he was suddenly taken from us after a lengthy illness.

Mr Mack, as he was affectionately known by everyone, was an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Navy and loved to share stories of his many experiences throughout his travels abroad. Upon his return from the service, he always worked in professions that allowed him to interact with diverse groups of people. He was a caregiver in a hospital; a role model to the community when he worked in the Hilton Market convenience store; and he also worked as an over the road truck driver for Hearn and Kirkwood, where he ultimately retired from.

He married his wife, the former Reiko Aso Johnson, and through this union he shared two children: Robert and Alexander.

He was previously married to the former Barbara S. Hope and through this union shared five children: Andre, Jerome, Kim, Marcus, and Barbara Maxine.

Mr. Mack made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and devoted family member.

With fond memories, he leaves behind to mourn: his wife of 35 years, Reiko Johnson-McCowan; daughter, Kim Y. McCowan-Williams; stepson, Alexander Johnson; daughter-in-law, Belinda Johnson (Threatt); sister, Dorothy Perkins; ten grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other family and friends.
