“ Duffy doesn't have to worry anymore. The last few times we talked he worried about his condition. I knew he was putting up a fight to be here with all of us but he was really suffering. Be at peace now my friend. Always enjoyed when he stopped by the shop, always had a few funny stories for us. Peacetime his family and get your rest Duffy. Michelle the nail tech

You can truly rest now my brother. I love you and will always remember the times that we laughed together. You will always be the brother that I never had and I am so grateful to the spirit above that you and I met and that you adopted me as your sister and I adopted you asy brother. My heart is broken but I know that God loved you more
