

Hattie B. Almond

January 2, 1921 - August 19, 2010

HATTIE BELL ALMOND, daughter of the late Henry and Della Whitehead, was born on January 2, 1921 in Keysville, Virginia. She was the oldest of seventeen children. She departed this life on August 19, 2010.

Hattie attended school in Keysville, Virginia. She chose Christ as her Savior and joined the Lone Oak Baptist Church at an early age. She came to Baltimore after her marriage to Major Almond, Jr. Out of this union, three children were born, her late son, Roosevelt and two daughters, Mary Dee and Gloria Jean.

Hattie was devoted to her family. She was an excellent cook. Family members enjoyed everything from her eggs to her cake and pies. Her hobby was crocheting. She made Afgans for many family members. She joined Whitestone Baptist Church where she attended Sunday School, Bible Study and served as a member of The Super Sixties.

She leaves to mourn: two daughters, Mary Dee and Gloria Jean; daughter-in-law, Jackie; nine grandchildren, Cherly, Richard, Jonathan, Denise, Ronald, Lisa, Cystal, Sherri and David; twenty great-grandchildren; brother, Rufus; nine sisters, Pearline, Elizabeth, Eva, Ceil. Ida, LuAnne, Arlene, Ruth and Catherine; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of other friends and relatives.
