

Hattie Bailey

March 23, 1923 - September 22, 2003

Hattie Edna Burrell-Bailey was born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 23, 1923. She was born one of twelve children to the late Charles and Virginia Jones Burrell. She attended Baltimore City public schools, including Dunbar Senior High School. She soon entered the garment industry in Baltimore and went on to work as a seamstress. She met and married Raymond Bailey, moved to New York, and to their union bore four children: Jacqueline, Warren, Beverly and Melvin. Her husband and four children preceded her in death. In 1992, she moved back to Baltimore to live with her sister Polly on Rogers Avenue. Despite being legally blind, as well as having other illnesses, "Edna" as we all called her, kept in tune with the world by reading the paper daily, watching the local news and enjoying soaps operas. She leaves to mourn her passing: three sisters, Grace Wells, Rose Koehn and Polly Warren of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, Beverly Burrell; sister-in-law, Betty Burrell, both of New York City; brother-in-law, Ernest Warren of Baltimore, Maryland; four grandsons, Raymond of Baltimore, Marlon, Christopher and Pierre, all of New York; granddaughter, LaRona Manning Bailey of New York; granddaughter, LaRona Manning Bailey of New York City; great-grandson, Clemente of New York; stepson, Raymond Joseph Bailey of New York; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy is with you during this time of great lost. It is always very hard to cope with the lost of a loved one. It is so important for us all to know we have a comfort, a comfort of a loving God who cares so very much about us. This is why he lets us know according to his word the bible that death will no longer have a place among the living. Jehovah will turn all the negative effects of death away from us all. Jehovah says according to Isaiah 45:18 he created the earth to be inhabited. Psalms 115:16 says he gives the earth to man. Why would God do such a thing because Jehovah is a God of love 1John 4:8 and being a loving God who loved us first he makes these provisions for those loving him that the righteous will reside upon the earth forever stated at Psalms 37:29. So, being God's purpose for us is to live forever than there is truly no place for death to reside among the living. That is why at Rev. 21: 3, 4 states death will be no more... and the things that causes death will be no more. Jehovah will also correct the damage of death by resurrecting all those who have died according to John 5:28, 29. What a joyous occasion when we will be able to enjoy the lives of those we love once again. This is Jehovah's promised hope from the beginning of mans creations. The hope of everlasting life on earth. Titus 1:2 May this bring comfort to your wounded heart.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am truly sorry to hear about the loss of Mrs. Bailey. When we lose someone that is dear to us it can leave us feeling so empty inside. No matter how much time goes by the pain can still exist. A relationship with Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with the loss of Mrs. Bailey. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking to a friend can help, how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help you. Notice what the Bible says at Psalms 55:22... Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter. I want to encourage you to read Psalms 83:18 and John 5:28-29 in your copy of your Bible. I hope that you can find some comfort from these scriptures. Take care.##imported-begin##Ava##imported-end##

“ To the family of Hattie Bailey. I would like to send my condolences for your loss. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope in times of despair. At John 5:28, 29 it says, "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." This has brought me comfort and I hope it comforts you in the days to come.###imported-begin###Joseph Hill, Jr.###imported-end###

“ To the family of Hattie Bailey: I am sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. I have found much comfort and solace from the Bible during my time of deep sorrow and I would like to share it with you. The Bible assures us that one day sickness and death will be done away with and our loved ones will be brought back to life. Notice this at Hosea 13:14. It says, From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them, from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol? I hope you find comfort in these words as I have. Please accept my condolence.###imported-begin###Ruth Thomas###imported-end###
