

Hattie M. Birt

January 22, 2017

Hattie Mae Birt, the daughter of Hilliard and Patience Bryant, was born in Washington, North Carolina

. She departed this life on January 22, 2017 after a brief illness.

She received her education in the North Carolina public school system. God was the center of her life even in childhood. She taught Sunday school as a child and sang in the choir.

She moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she received training as a licensed practical nurse, and worked at the former City Hospital. She later left health care for the manufacturing industry, working as a seamstress until retirement. She married Oliver Birt, also from North Carolina, who preceded her in death in 1997. Two children were born of this union.

Mrs. Hattie Mae Birt always put God first in her life. God was her joy and her purpose. She attended the East Baltimore Deliverance Church until her illness and death.

She was a loving sister, aunt, cousin, friend and a loving and caring mother to her two children. She was a beautiful person with a kind heart who was always willing to help and encourage others. She was well loved by everyone who knew her. She loved to read and listen to music.

She leaves to cherish her life and memory her son, Robert Birt, her daughter Lorraine Birt, two nieces Adine Christie and Mary Frances Ruffin, a cousin Marie Muhammad, two nephews Earl Bryant and Buddy Christie and a host of grand nieces, grand nephews, cousins and friends
