

Hattie Gibbs Henry

May 10, 1924 - July 8, 2005

HATTIE EULA BURTON HENRY, daughter of the late Bonnie Warren and Harriett Burton, was born on May 10, 1924 in Newberry County, S.C. She departed this life on July 8, 2005 in her home with her daughter by her side, after a brief stay at Bon Secours Hospital, where she and her family were told she had terminal lung cancer. The Burton family moved to Washington, D.C. in 1938, where Hattie attended public schools. Hattie moved to Baltimore, Md. in 1947, where she later met and married the late Harley M. Henry and out of that union two daughters were born, Valerie and the late Scarlett Evette Henry. Hattie later joined and was baptized at Morning Star Baptist Church. Hattie had several jobs, one was at an ice cream cone factory, Continental Can Co. and her last job was at A.R.A. Food Service where she retired after twenty years. Hattie and Harley lived at the same address for more than fifty-four years. Hattie leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Valerie; three stepsons, Bernard, Robert and Harley Jr. all of Baltimore, Md.; four grandchildren, Keith, Stewart, Ralph, Denise and Sonovia; three great-grandchildren, Tysheria, Courtney Evette and Darian; plus soon to be two granddaughters-in-law, Tish (Keith) and China (Stewart); two brothers, James Burton (Jimmy) and Woodrow Burton both of Washington, D.C.; one niece, Mae Ross Backus of Baltimore, Md. Hattie leaves a host of nieces, nephews and a lot of friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Hattie Henry,Iwant to express my deepest symapthies for the loss of your dear love one.Iknow that at this time your hearts are heavy with pain because death is our enemy,I am also trying to get over the death of my husband.I would like to share a couple of scriptures that I have found to be of comfort to me. At Isaih 26;19 it holds out a promise that our dear love ones will live again.J ohn 5; 28, 29 tells us in part that the hour is coming in which all those in the mmorial tombs hear his voice , and come out .The beauty of that scripture is that Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he choose.please remember that the Bible is full of words of comfort.please look at Acts 24;15 and Revelation 21;3,and 4. sinserely .###imported-begin##Lena M arshall,###imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The scriptures give us great comfort in these trying times. One such scripture is found at Isaiah 66:13 where it says “Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting YOU people; Please draw this comfort from the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).###imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe###imported-end##
