

Hattie Dow- Hillmon

April 24, 1958 - September 25, 2021

Hattie Doreen Dow-Hillmon, lovingly known as "Pinky" was born on April 23, 1958 to Robert Williams, Sr. (deceased) and Shirley Mae Williams. Pinky entered eternal rest on September 25, 2021 peacefully at her residence.

Pinky received her education from Baltimore City school system. She graduated from Southern High School.

In 2010 she married John Hillmon. She accepted Christ at Covenant Brit Ministries in Essex, MD. She was in the kitchen ministries and assisted in any other area that was needed. Pinky was employed by The US Mint, as a data clerk, then continued to work for Kennedy Krieger Institute, and later retired from Aveard International.

Pinky was a rescue mom for many dogs, which she loved so much. Even though she didn't birth any children, she mothered so many. She loved her gospel music, and was a collector of movies. Pinky was very photo genic, and had a mouth for two people. Pinky was devoted and dedicated to her family and friends. She lived to serve by serving others. She loved her Ravens. Her favorite saying was "Hump day."

Pinky was proud to tell others that she was all about her Father's work, His will, His WAY...It is about Yeshua the Messiah.

Pinky leaves to cherish her memory: husband John Hillmon, two step-daughters Toneka, Tia, her mother Shirley Williams, four sisters Valerie, Rita, Robin, Deborah, one brother Robert Williams, Jr., 3 brothers-in-law Jerry, Hop, Robert, preceded in death by sisters Gwendolyn Imes, and Elizabeth Drumwright, six grandchildren Keyon, Talia, Armani (Scoot), McKenzie, Makayla, Aiden (AJ), two godchildren Ashley, Si'Riyah, one uncle, and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and her two dogs Barney and Buddy.
