

Hattie L. Hutcherson

August 25, 1933 - February 24, 2013

HATTIE LEE HUTCHERSON, daughter of the late Charlie and Hattie Tillerson, was born on August 25, 1933 in Mecklenburg County, Skipwith, Virginia. On Sunday, February 24, 2013, an angel slipped quietly to her side and took her home.

She received her education in Westend High School in Virginia. She found her love for Christ at a very young age and received her baptism at Saint Luke Baptist Church under the pastorship of Rev. Harold Carter after moving to Baltimore, Maryland. Later, she met and married Edward Hutcherson, Sr. Out of this union, God blessed them with seven children. She retired as a daycare provider of over twenty years. "Mama," as she was affectionately known, was very witty, sharp minded, and had a great sense of humor. She was a huge Raven fan. Her favorite saying whenever you talked to her was "pray about it". She always left a lasting impression on everyone who came into her presence. She will be missed by everyone, especially her devoted granddaughter, Brittany Hutcherson, who lived with her from birth.

Leaving to celebrate her life are: six children, Alva Roxanne, Edward Elroy, Rosemary, Cassandra and Charlotte; one daughter-in-law, Cynthia Hutcherson; one son-in-law, Donnie Wilson; thirteen grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren; two sisters-in-law, Mable Tillerson and Kepy Martin; nephew, Larry Hayes; niece, Lorraine Atkinson; and a host of other family and friends.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Edward; son, Louis Hutcherson; and son-in-law, Larry Maurice Carter.

“ *To the family of Hattie L. Hutcherson:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I wanted to send my condolences to this family. Please keep the memories of Mrs. Hutcherson alive; this is a great comforting aid.

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers. Psalms 55:22 brings out, " Throw your burdens upon Jehovah; he will sustain you."

Love,
