“ To the family. Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time that brings so much pain and anguish we can find it hard to see any light at the end of the tunnel, but God's word provides such light. Where in it not only is death called "our enemy", but it also promises that "death will be no more." (1 Corinthians 15:26, Revelation 21:4) So just think, there will be a time when death and all the feelings at accompany it will be done away with, for good. I hope that reflecting on the promises set out in the Bible brings you as much comfort as doing so does for me.###imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Hattie. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
