

Hattie L Taylor

March 26, 1939 - September 15, 2017

HATTIE LEE BAKER TAYLOR was born to the late Doremus and Letha Baker in Vanceboro, North Carolina on March 26, 1939. On Friday, September 15, 2017, God called her home.

She received her education in the Craven County School System. Early in life, Hattie joined Mary Martha Missionary Baptist Church in Ernul, North Carolina. Hattie married Archie Davis Blount, Sr. From this union, two children were born. After moving to Baltimore, Maryland, she became a faithful member of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church.

She later married Joseph Taylor Sr, her husband of many years who preceded her in death.

She had a successful career at Baltimore Gas and Electric receiving special recognition for her 32 years of faithful service upon her retirement.

Hattie enjoyed listening and dancing to music by Al Green, her favorite singer. She was an avid Baltimore Orioles fan and she loved to travel. She especially enjoyed going on cruises with family and friends. She also loved cooking her specialty--scrumptious delicious chicken wings.

Hattie leaves to cherish her memory, two sons Kelvin and Archie Blount, Jr.;

six grandchildren, Kelvin (Derrick) Blount, Karen Blount and Archie Blount, III, Charlease and London Smalls and Kassan Williams; eight great grandchildren; step children Barbara Ann, Robert and Joseph Taylor Jr (deceased); two brothers Alton Gray Baker (deceased) and James Albert Baker (Chirstine) of Temple Hill, Maryland; two sisters, Carrie (Sis) Best Baker of Vanceboro, North Carolina, and Fannie Baker of Panama City, Florida; four sister-in law's, Millie Rice, Matilda Jones, Florence Bonaparte and Eva Baker; three brothers-in-law, John Blount, Marcellus Blount and Joseph Blount; two special cousins, Earscell Dixon and William Allen Scott; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
