“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Mrs. Stanley I offer my deepest condolences. I know it really hurts to lose your mother. I too lost mine many years ago. What comforts me is to know that Jehovah God promises that if I am faithful one day I will be reunited with her when he brings her back to life. That resurrection hope is what the bible holds out as the sure remedy for death. This is one reason why Jesus gave his precious life so that we might have an opportunity to have our sins forgiven and receive everlasting life. As he stated at John 10:10, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." I pray that you too find comfort and strength in his wonderful promises of a brighter day.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##
