

Hazel R. Bailey

May 5, 1932 - October 22, 2013

HAZEL REBECCA BAILEY, daughter of the late Ida Pearl and Henry Ross, was born on May 5, 1932 in Cumberland County, Virginia. She departed this life on Tuesday, October 22, 2013 after a brief illness.

She received her education in the Virginia public school system; but in 1954, as a young mother and wife to the late Richard Bailey, she wanted her children to get a better education, so they moved to Baltimore, Maryland.

Hazel worked hard and long all her life to support her family. She worked at USF&G Insurance Company for thirty years from which she retired in 1988. Being the hard-working woman she was, she also worked for the City of Baltimore for fifteen years from which she retired in 1990.

Hazel was a dedicated member of St. Paul Baptist Church on The Alameda, where she joined under the leadership of the late Reverend Dr. George A. Crawly Jr. Hazel enjoyed singing on the Mass Choir and ushering for the Usher Board, which she did for over twenty years.

Hazel had many passions in life. The one you all know her most for is her first love... cooking!!! She would feed any and everybody. Her second love was traveling. She would do day trips or long trips, but one thing for certain; never on a plane or a boat. When she was not traveling, she was with her family and friends, cooking, eating and enjoying life.

Hazel had nine children, which four of them preceded her in death, James, Willie, Dennis and Ralph Bailey. She also had a sister and a brother, Frances Holmes and George Ross, who preceded her in death.

She leaves in love to mourn: two sons, Curtis and Jerry Bailey; three daughters, Shirley Bailey, Teresa Elliott and Charlene Sealey; two sons-in-law, Garrett Elliott and Darryl Sealey; fifteen grandchildren, thirty-three great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends including a special friend of over fifty years, Edith "Brownie" Brown.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ *To the family of Hazel R. Bailey:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Shirley and family

I remember the trips I shared with your Mom. She always made sure we had plenty food and snacks. I always enjoyed the (Hazel) stories you told at work. I feel blessed to have met her . Indeed she was a beautiful lady. Love, Gloria, Stretch and family.

“ To the family of Helen Bailey ... I am so sorry to learn of the death of your dear loved one. God hates death; he views it as an enemy, he has a yearning to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again. (1Corinthians 15:26; Job 14: 14, 15) These promises of God should help to relieve some of the deep sorrow you are feeling now. Again, please accept my deepest condolences.
