“ Hello Family & Friends of Mrs. Carter, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 5:28,29 where Jesus says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. She really was privileged to live a very long and productive life. That is really an accomplishment these days! However, our loving Creator has something even better for us and our loved ones who have died- the hope of eternal life in a peaceful new world. He will restore many of the dead to life. Daniel 12:2- "Many, many people of the earth that are dead and buried will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever." Want a wonderful prospect! There will be no more sickness, sorrow, death or pain on the earth at that time. (Isaiah 33:24, Psalm 37:29 and Matthew 5:5) May you receive much comfort and strength from these divinely inspired promises in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
