

Hazel D. Jones

July 15, 1908 - September 28, 2009

HAZEL DOCKERY JONES, daughter of the late James Garfield and Ora Chavis Dockery, was born on July 15, 1908 at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland. A long-time resident of Baltimore City, she departed this life on Friday, August 28, 2009 at her residence. Hazel attended the Baltimore City Public Schools and also furthered her education by attending the Community College of Baltimore. She met the love of her life, the late Richard James, and married on May 29, 1943. Hazel accepted Christ at an early age and joined the Foundation Baptist Church, where she enjoyed serving on many committees such as the Constitution Committee, the Zebulun Tribe, and she also taught Children's Sunday School. During her earlier years of life, she truly enjoyed traveling, driving, dancing, socializing, entertaining and spending time with her family during special holidays. She was a faithful member of the International Toastmistress Clubs and NAACP. She had a grand love for children and devoted over twenty-five years working with Head Start and with the Foster Grandparents programs. She always kept familiar with current events. When Mr. Barack Obama was elected President of the United States of America, she laughed and said, "I never thought I would live to see a Colored Man elected President of the United States, I just never thought this would happen." Unlike many, the Most High allowed Hazel to experience life beyond a century of greatness, at the age of 101. She was a jewel and left an imprint on many lives. Hazel leaves to cherish her memory: one nephew, Clifton James; three nieces, Shirley Brown, Michelle and Pamela; and very devoted and caring friend, Gregory Rucker and Connie; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Hazel D. Jones

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Rest in Peace Aunt Hazel###imported-begin###Michele Brown-Norwood###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Ms. Hazel Jones,I will miss her.I will keep the family in my prayers.Love Ms.Sandy 1816.N.Chapel St. Baltimore, Md. 21213###imported-begin###Sandy Gross###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.###imported-begin###C. Murphy###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death is something we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Christ Jesus, bring our 'enemy to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM