

Hazel Drumgold

July 23, 1937 - October 17, 2013

HAZEL DRUMGOLD (BARBIE), daughter of the late Alexander and Ida Jones, was born on July 22, 1937 in Baltimore, MD. She left to be with the LORD on October 17, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

Barbara was raised in West Baltimore and received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She was self-employed for many years. She was married to the late John Drumgold. Barbara began her Christian life at Simmons Memorial Baptist Church where she was a dedicated member for many years. Later she joined Greater Liberty Baptist Church where she faithfully served more than a decade as an Usher.

Hazel (affectionately known as “Barbara/Barbie” to her family and close friends) was a devoted mother, a caring grandmother and a loving sister.

Hazel loved to shop and collect knick-knacks. She loved her collection of teddy bears especially Silky Bear. Always the center of attention, she aimed “To look better than the Bride

She leaves to celebrate her life: her lovely daughter, Jacqueline L. Phillips (Robert Phillips) (daughter Roslyn Y. Kutcherman and her husband Irvin Kutcherman preceded Hazel in death); sister, Bessie O. Johnson (Mary Frances Phipps and Augustine Buttons preceded her in death); ten grandchildren, Robert Gough, Eugene Laster (De'Nolla Laster), Aaron Laster, (Robert Phillips III preceded her in death), Robin Phillips (Ervin Talley), Irvin Kutcherman, Rosalind Phillips, Christine Kutcherman, Erica Kutcherman, Gwendolyn Kutcherman, (Angela Moore and Sheila Moore); eighteen great-grandchildren, Antonio, Ziyah, E'Moni, Erin, Keontae, David, Essence, Emaya, Ervin Jr., Ebony, Taniyah, Irvin, Jamaya, Kiyai, Deandre, Tamia, Tyshawn and Tywon; very dear friends, Grace, Sylvia, Mary, Sheila and Lynn; in addition, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Hazel Drumgold:
*Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ We were so saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Barbara. Please find comfort in knowing that to know her was to love her. It is our prayer that your loss is heaven's gain. Earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal.

With our love and sincere sympathy, The Talley and Robertson Family

“ I am sorry to read about the passing of your loved one. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and makes us yearn for tomorrow, when Jehovah God keeps the promise he made at Rev 21:3-4 when death, mourning, outcry, pain and sorrow will be eliminated. These things that cause mankind so much pain will be eliminated.
