

Hazel L. Ford

October 25, 1947 - November 30, 2001

Hazel Lee Whitaker Ford, daughter of the late Gertrude Whitaker was born on October 25, 1947 in Greensboro, North Carolina. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on November 30, 2001. Hazel received her education at Dunbar High school. She then later went on to attend Towson Stratford Business College. Hazel's last place of employment was at the Department of Education where she later retired. Hazel was a very strong black woman. She also was an outgoing person who loved to travel, sew and decorate. She could literally make nothing into something beautiful. Hazel also loved to work in her garden and planting her flowers. She made numerous friends wherever she went, and anytime someone needed her she was more than willing to lend a hand. She will be sincerely missed by all that knew her. She touched many lives and will never be forgotten. Hazel married the late Dallas Weston and out of this union three children were born Reggie, Sean, and Darryl who preceded her in death. Hazel then met Thomas E. Ford and they were together for numerous years before they were married on October 30, 1992. Out of this union one child was born Kimberly M. Ford. Hazel and Tommy's love is an inspiration to us all. He was there from the very beginning of her illness and he was there in the very end. Like their vows stated "In sickness and in health till death do them part". Hazel leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband Thomas E. Ford, two sons, Reginald A. Weston, and Sean A. Weston, one daughter, Kimberly M. Ford; two sisters, Helen McKenny of Baltimore, Md., and Dorothy Whitaker of Greensboro, NC; one brother,

Anthony Whitaker; a brother-in-law, Otha Ford; nine grandchildren, Rocquel, Tanera, Stephanie, Donte, Dawon, Kiristen, Sean Jr., Samia and Lashawn, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends. Devoted friends Ms. Maggie, Ms. Dot, Ms. Bernice, Ms. Edna and Ms Elaine
