

Hazel Mae Sherod

March 21, 1926 - January 26, 2013

First born to the late Sarah and Henry Carson Williams was a beautiful baby girl named HAZEL MAE WILLIAMS the first of eighteen children. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on Saturday, January 26, 2013.

Today we celebrate her life and give thanks for Hazel being part of our life. In 1945, she was united in marriage to the late Daniel C. Sherod and they were blessed with six children: (JoAnn (deceased), Emogene, Geraldine, Daniel (Butch-deceased), Timothy (deceased) and Henry. She was a member of Cedar Grove Baptist Church in Whiteville, North Carolina and First Emmanuel Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Hazel was a member of the Eastern Star of Baltimore. Hazel attended Mt. Olive High School in Whiteville, North Carolina. She attended nursing school in New York. Hazel worked at Lutheran Hospital, Kernan Nursing Home and Walter P. Carter (Spring Grove State Hospital) for many years and occasionally would proctor the National Teachers Exam (NTE) at Coppin State University. She retired in 1986 to take care of her husband, Daniel C. Sherod during his illness. Hazel was a devoted wife and mother and enjoyed cooking for her family, siblings and friends. She would help anyone in need. It has not always been a smooth road. Through it all we cherish the times with Mom. Mom was not just a mother of six, but a mother to each and everyone who was in her life in some way or another. Many siblings, children, grandchildren, and greatgrandchildren

diapers did she changed.

Hazel leaves to cherish her memory: her twin daughters, Emogene Brown and Geraldine Church of Baltimore, Maryland; and one son, Henry Sherod of Springdale, Maryland; nine grandchildren, twentythree great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren; four sisters, Mae Singleton (Robert) and Emmajean Estes of Pennsylvania, Vernie Mae Greene of New York and Isadora Mckoy of North Carolina; three brothers, Pinkley Williams (Myrtle), Cleveland Williams (Christine) and Shelton Williams (Patricia) all of North Carolina; sisters-in-law, Minnie Williams, Doris Williams and Yvonne Williams of North Carolina; aunts, Agnes Williams, Elizabeth Nichols, Lucy Williams and Essie Best of North Carolina; special cousin, Barbara Griffin (Willie) of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences go out to the family. This must be a difficult time for the family, losing someone that you loved. May you gain strength by the promise of Jesus Christ to restore our dead loved ones back to life with us on earth as stated at Matthew 5:5 and John 5:28, 29.

Annitta Verrett - February 09, 2013 at 08:29 PM

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3,4 John 5:28,29). Again my sincere condolences to the family.

Peggy Land - February 02, 2013 at 02:05 PM

“ I am so sorry about your loss. May you find comfort in the scriptures at John 5:28,29 a hope for a resurrection.

Ms.Howard - January 30, 2013 at 10:38 AM

Continue holding God's hand and He will see you through.

Ms. A. Davis - February 01, 2013 at 05:52 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
