“ Hazel Bernice Short

“ It seems like just yesterday that I would be so excited to come to Baltimore from New York to see my Aunt Bernice, Uncle Johnny, and my cousins Patty and Carol. I would not be able to sleep for a week in preparation for this trip every summer. Aunt Bernice would have the best food, best smile and best hug waiting for us. Many years later as I became an adult, I moved to Baltimore and lived only minutes away from my family, but each time I planned to go and see them, life got in the way. It breaks my heart to think that I always assumed that there would be a "tomorrow" and that I would make time "soon" to stop by and see them... and then I ran out of time. I would like you all to remember that I love each of you and I will never forget Aunt Bernice and all of the love she showed me and my little brother all of these years. Until we meet again Aunt Bernice... I love you.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ I am so sorry to learn of the death of your loved one. "Death will be no more." (Revelation 21:4) What has caused more unwanted tears than the enemy death? Obedient humans will soon be released from the grip of death. God will eliminate the real cause of death; sin inherited from Adam (Romans 5:12). Obedient humans will be lifted to perfection on the basis of Jesus' ransom sacrifice. The last enemy, death, will be "brought to nothing." (1 Corinthians 15:26) Faithful humans will be able to live as God purposed for them to live-forever in perfect health. Please accept my deepest condolences.

“ To the family of Ms Hazel Short . I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that talks about “The Hearer of prayers, people of all flesh will come.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
