“ Dear family and friends of Hazel. I am very sorry to hear about the lost of your loved one. Death is never an easy thing to go through. The bible does tell of a time when death, sickness, and pain will be a thing of the past. Rev 21:4,##imported-begin##A. Jones##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn that you have loss Hazel to death. I am sure that this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote, but that was not so from the begining. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ My husband and I extend our deepest and sincere sympathy in the passing of Hazel Qualls. It is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Nonetheless, the Bible is a source of comfort and encouragement at such times. At Acts 24:15 the Bible assures us that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Also Jesus promises to resurrect all in his father's memor in the near future to live in peaceful conditions. May you find comfort and strength in Jesus' promises.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the Qualls Family, Those we love remain a part of us. Our loved ones leave the world, but never our hearts. Your Mother/Wife is a part of who you are, of how you see the world, of how you live and give. Your mother/Wife will always live in your heart, in your memories, and in the way you see the world. “ In such a time as this, words are so hard to express my heartfelt sympathy at the passing of your mother and loved one, MaMa Hazel. She was a wonderfully sweet, blessed and humble woman of God, and she will be missed. I had the priviledge of speaking to her about two months ago, and I thoroughly enjoyed our time together. I know your heart is hurting, however, also know that "...weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning ..." God sees your grief, and He is there to comfort you at your time of need. Call upon Him who can give you strength to endure this time, knowing that she is with Him, and suffering no more. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
