

Hazel Williams

January 8, 1946 - November 6, 2012

HAZEL WILLIAMS, daughter of the late Andrew and Hazel Williams, was born on January 8, 1946. She departed this world suddenly on November 6, 2012.

Tiny, as she was known by her friends and family, was educated in the Baltimore City School System. She began her working career at Western Electric, where she proudly retired. Her most recent career move was at Clarence W. Blount Child Development Center at BCCC.

She made lots of friends throughout her life. Tiny was a kind, fun, loving, care-free person. You could always count on her for a good time and lots of laughs. Her favorite things to do included playing games all day on her laptop, talking to her sisters and making jokes about anything.

Hazel was preceded in death by: her son, Larry Williams (Snoopy).

She leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Rodney Bullock; one daughter, Rhonda Williams; one granddaughter, Brittany Williams; two sisters, Diane Jenkins and Gail Williams; a goddaughter, Tamaera Emmons; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Brittany,

I am truly saddened to hear of your recent loss and would like to express my sincere condolences to you and your family on the recent passing of your grandmother.

Your grandmother was such an amazing person who touched the lives of many. I remember the many times I had been over at your place and how she would tell us stories of when she was young.

I can only imagine how difficult this must be for you. Hope that you find courage and strength to bear this irreparable loss.

*Love,
London*
