

Hazel Ann Willingham

May 2, 1938 - November 24, 2012

HAZEL ANN WILLINGHAM, was the seventh child of Charles and Mary Hunter. She was born on May 2, 1938 in Glen Arm, Maryland. Hazel passed peacefully on Saturday, November 24, 2012.

Hazel attended Carver Vocational Technical High school in Baltimore, Maryland. She moved to San Francisco, California in 1961. She was employed at Walston Investment Firm where they encouraged her to attend Hills College for typing and computer. She then went to work for Bank of America from which she retired after being there for twenty years.

On July 16, 1964 she married the love of her life, Alfred Smith Willingham in Reno, Nevada. They shared their life in San Francisco, California for over forty-eight years. In 1989, they built a home in Vallejo, California where they resided until her death.

At an early age she attended Mt. Winans United Methodist Church in Baltimore, Maryland where she served on the Youth Choir. Hazel was independent, full of life, spunky and hilarious! She visited Baltimore every year and stayed for at least a month. While in Baltimore she loved to travel the surrounding cities with family and friends enjoying cookouts and family functions. She loved her pets, which over the years included birds, dogs and rabbits. She also enjoyed her great-nieces and great-nephews visiting her in California a lot of summers.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Alfred Willingham; three sisters, Helen Gwynn, June Carter and Delores Coleman; her brother, William Hunter; her sisters-in-law, Lily Willingham and Alice Bell. She was preceded in death by five brothers and three sisters. In addition, she is survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, numerous extended family members and countless friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
