“ To Brenda and the Jackson Family extending deepest sympathy from the Pride Family. Have only seen Hazell several times since our days in Prince Edward County.
When we ran into each other he was the same upbeat and pleasant person I remembered from school. May you find comfort in knowing he was loved by his friends and former class mates.

I know there are no words that takes the place of Hazell at this time, just the peace in knowing he is in a better place. Walk in God's peace and wrap yourself in His love and take Hazell's memories with you, because he has walked through his valley.

“ *To the Jackson Family,
I was so sorry to read of the death of your loved one. I wanted to write to let you know something that helps me when my love ones die. It is the scripture at Revelation 21:4. That scripture says in part 'there will be no more death, sickness and pain'. What a wonderful hope. Then there is another one that lets me know that death will be gone forever. It is found at Isaiah 25:8. That scripture says 'God will swallow up death forever'. How comforting that is. The bible holds out so many wonderful promises for us. Well I do hope that these scriptures have been of comfort to you. If you have any questions, please free to e-mail me.*
