

Headacko Lee Ampy

September 27, 1955 - March 27, 2023

Headacko Ampy was a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She left this world suddenly on Monday, March 27, 2023.

“Cookie,” as she was affectionately known by her friends and family, was born to Joseph and Martha Moody on September 27, 1955. After graduating from Petersburg High School in 1973, she worked in several service-oriented jobs and eventually settled into a long career in property management.

Cookie was loving, selfless, caring, thoughtful, and friendly to everyone she met. She was a breath of fresh air, always encouraging others. Cookie's love extended beyond humans, as she had a special fondness for cats and dogs. She would often care for her family's pets, treating them with the same tenderness and compassion that she showed to those closest to her.

Her acts of kindness were not limited to just the people she knew - even strangers felt drawn to her warmth and generosity. Within the community, she would find programs to help others and activities for children.

Cookie's nurturing spirit and presence in our lives will be sorely missed.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Joseph and Martha Moody; and husband, Calvester Ampy. She is survived by her daughters, Yoshiko Green and Bianca Parker (Christopher Parker); grandchildren, Destinee Joyner, Amaya Brown, Brenden Parker, Ronald Parker, Logan Parker, and Elijah Parker; her brother, Joseph Moody, Jr.; and close friends, Brian Brown and Janice Harrison.
