

Hebrew Little

May 22, 1938 - April 25, 2003

Hebrew “ Ray” Little was born on May 22, 1938 to the late Gladys Parker and Walter Little in Pitt County, North Carolina. After a short illness at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Hebrew “ Ray” Little began his homeward journey. He received his education through the Simpson Community and Pitt County Training Schools in North Carolina. Hebrew left North Carolina and settled in Connecticut where he worked as a laborer. He was joined in Holy Matrimony to Annette Peray and they relocated to Baltimore, Maryland, where he continued work as a laborer for J. H. Lawrence Construction Co. During his early years, Hebrew loved playing basketball and wrestling. After becoming disabled, he loved to cook and talk with his buddies at the Laundromat. His older sister, Rosie Hockaday, preceded Hebrew in death. Hebrew leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Annette Little; four sons, Eddie McDowell of New York, Jerome, Nelson, and Donyell Little all of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, Walter O’Neal Little of Baltimore, Maryland; one sister, Donaleta Little of Greenville, North Carolina; one sister-in-law; a very special friend, Geraldine Weaver; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends
