

Hector Allister Townsend

February 29, 1936 - March 6, 2012

A man of leadership, poise and strength, HECTOR ALLISTER TOWNSEND, was born in Clarendon, Jamaica, West Indies on February 29, 1936 to Eugenia Adina and Henry Townsend. Hector departed this earthly life on Tuesday, March 6, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Affectionately known by all as "Son-Son," he was educated in the Jamaica School System and worked as a Mechanic throughout his life.

Hector was a very outgoing and jovial man and did whatever he could to make other's happy. He was a loving man and loved his family dearly. In 1966 hector married his sweetheart, Velma Virginia Ricketts and from this union came six children. While his illness weakened him, he found comfort in knowing his wife was always at his side, even until he walked his last mile.

Hector leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Velma; six children, Catherine Harty, Michelle Romes, Debbie Bailey (Daniel), David (Camille), Peter (Lorraine) and Courtney Townsend; his Amy, Carmen, Lucille, Radcliff, George and Granville; sisters-in-law, Edna Bramwell and Lorna Nemhard, brother-in-law, Malcolm and Harris Johnson; twenty grandchildren; and eleven great-grands; nieces, Nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
