“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the "God of all comfort" (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Death is something we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy.' May you find comfort in knowing that very soon our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that He will by means of His son Christ Jesus, bring our 'enemy' to nothing. (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ Ms. Helen sounds like a very loving and caring person. Many will remember her including Almighty God. Death is an absence of life. The bible draws the contrast at Romans 6:23, ‘the wages sin pays is death, but the gift of God gives is everlasting life.’ Many wonder then, what is the condition of the dead? Are my dead love one suffering? The bible explains at Ecclesiates 9:5; ‘the living are conscious that they will die, but as for the dead, they are conscious of NOTHING at all.’ They are in a deep sleep awaiting for the resurrection hope promised at John 5:28,29. My deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##
