The doors of life were opened to HELEN B. BARNES on May 26, 1910 in Gloucester County, Virginia to the union of Olive Virginia Fisher Boyd and James Gregory. On October 18, 2006, her life came to a close after a lengthy illness. Helen was educated in Baltimore City public schools. Helen was a member of Morning Star Baptist Church. Later in life she became a member of Shiloh Baptist Church. Helen was married to the late Clarence Mills upon this union were two children, Harriett LeCompte (deceased) and Marlene Dixson. Mother retired from City Hospital. She leaves to cherish her memory: her very devoted daughter, Marlene Dixson; husband, Thomas Barnes; brother, Edward Gregory; four grandchildren, Anton Smith Sr., Angela LeCompte, Louis LeCompte and Quentin LeCompte; niece, Brenda Colfield; nephew, Richard Butler; seven great-grandchildren, Anton Smith, Jr., Etasha, Terrin, Kendal, Brandon, Jada and Jerrell; son-in-law, Leroy Dixson; and a host of other relatives and friends. Acknowledgements: Marlene Dixson wish to thank the staff and doctors at Sinai Hospital, Levindale and Future Care for giving my mother very good care. A heartfelt thanks is extended to all that helped to ease the heavy burden that we share. All kindnesses have sustained us. The knowledge that true caring friends are always within reach. May God's grace and richest blessings be with you always. Dear Mother, I saw you fading like a flower, but could not make you stay. I nursed you with tender kindness and love till God called you away. Oh dear mother, I love you so and will miss you dearly. My heart aches for you still. Forgotten by some others too but by me you never will be forgotten.

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. First Corinthians chapter 15 verse 26 lovingly tells us that our "enemy death" will one day be "destroyed". There is much hope of our loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.(Acts 24:15 and Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises of the Bible.###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs. Barnes, particularly the daughter, I can really feel your pain. Death truly touches us like nothing else does. It's something we can never come to grips with. When my son died after a while people stopped talking about him, but I never forgot him, and i know from a study of God's word, the bible, I have the hope of seeing him again. This is the promise our loving heavenly father extends to us if we trust in him, and strive to do his will. I know you want to see your mother again, and scriptures such as John 17:3 tells us what we must do in order to recieve this wonderful blessing. If you would like to know more concerning Jehovah's promises of a ressurection, and a happy future with our loved ones, please contact me at my e-mail, and I will gladly share the bible's promises with you. Please be comforted by your precious memories.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
