

Helen Batchelor

November 14, 1960 - May 7, 2003

Helen Zenobie-Marie Batchelor, better known as Peaches, and daughter of the late James and Shirley Batchelor; was born November 14, 1960 and departed this life on May 7, 2003 at the age of 42, after a lengthy illness. Peaches as she was so affectionately known received her education in the Baltimore City Public System where she graduated from Eastern High School. She was a friendly, outgoing, fun individual who always greeted everyone she met with a smile! She made many friends wherever she went. Some of her friends included Darlene Moye, Darryl Gregg, Sharon Bean, and Henry Kane. Peaches enjoyed being in the company of people, and especially her grandchildren. She leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter, Danisha Lucy Batchelor; one granddaughter; Jazmine Batchelor; one grandson, Damon Barnes Jr.; two brothers, Anthony and James Batchelor; two sisters, Sheila Batchelor and Susan Batchelor and Keith Smith; one grandmother, Zenobie Batchelor; one aunt, Joyce Batchelor; one great aunt, Sarah Brodie; two great uncles, Danny and Frank Goodwin; and a host of other friends and relatives.

“ Ma,

Its been 12 years already!!!! It never gets any easier 4 me. I've been sitting here all week just thinking and trying to stay occupied but nothing will take my mind off of you. I miss you sooo much wish you was here with me. Me & Darlene talk about you ALL the time and through her I can hold onto your memories and learn more than I ever knew. Me & Nikki talk about you as well and both know for sure that if you were here things would be different. I love you and wish that I could have one more day or hour just to talk because I need you. I love you..... Until we meet again
