

Helen Brooks

July 26, 1929 - June 28, 2010

HELEN BROOKS was the fifth child of Carrie and George Robert Turner. She was born in Baltimore, Maryland on July 26, 1929. She peacefully departed this life when she heard the Lord's call on June 28, 2010.

Helen was educated through the Baltimore City Public School system where she later graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1947. After graduating she worked many jobs beginning with Tommy Tucker and ending with K-Mart. However, she spent most of her life caring for her mother who had become blind. She also took on the double duty of caring for her son, Aaron.

She later married Norman Austin. From that marriage came a son Joshua. Many years after Norman was called home by the Lord, she married David Brooks.

Helen Brooks was devoted to the Lord Jesus Christ and the Church. She received Christ at an early age. Helen lived to serve her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, day and night. She was an active and faithful member of Mt. Olivet Christian Church for many years where she served as an Elder. Later, Helen became a member of Huber memorial Church. She looked forward to hearing the Word of God from Pastor Smith and loved the Huber choirs. She regularly attended services until her illness prevented her from doing so.

For over three years, she was a resident at Future Care's Nursing Facility until the Lord called her to rest.

Helen leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory her husband, David Brooks; two sons, Aaron Turner Sr. (Catherine) and Joshua Austin (Karam); six grandchildren Aaron Turner, Jr. (Joy), Sean Robert Turner, Joshua I. Austin, Keyin Austin, Kamora Austin, Kamill Austin; one sister, Irma Turner-Par ham; one brother, Joseph Turner and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, friends and her Huber Memorial Church family, all of whom she deeply cherished!
