

Helen C. Drummond

August 15, 1911 - November 14, 2002

Helen C. Drummond was born on August 15, 1911 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 11, 2002. Helen received her primary education in the public schools of Baltimore, completing her education at Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School. Helen was united in holy matrimony to the late George R. Drummond on October 15, 1939 and out of this union three children were born, Reginald, Deborah and Marlene. Following her husband's death, Helen was kept close to the bosoms of her children and grandchildren. Every holiday and birthday was a special event, surrounded by family and friends. The eldest remaining member of the Watkins family, Helen enjoyed being in their company, reminiscing of past times and enjoying the thrills and attention of the moment, whatever the occasion may have been. A member of St. Francis Xavier since her birth, Helen enjoyed mass, especially the Gospel Choir. She never missed a crab feast, shrimp feast, or Swinging 60's bull roast. These were her favorite events that raised funds for the church. "Grandma," as she was so fondly known, was always in tow and will be truly missed by all who shared her zest for life. She leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Reginald A. Drummond; two daughters, Deborah T. Brown and Marlene G. Hudley; six grandchildren, Andre', Angie, Kenneth, Darrin, Wayne and Regina; five great-grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Dennyse C. Drummond; and a host of other relatives and friends.
