

Helen C. Harris

August 24, 1943 - July 20, 2003

Helen Cecilia Harris, daughter of the late Marion and Chester Barrett, was born on August 24, 1943. Helen received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Helen married the late Rev. L.W. Harris in Baltimore, Maryland. Out of this union they both raised eleven children. One preceded her in death. She worked by her husband's side as a pastor's wife until his death. Helen was employed at Phillips Restaurant as a prep-cook until her health became a factor. Helen was the one that kept everyone laughing. She later joined the Mt Oliver Missionary Baptist church under the leadership of Pastor William H. Daughtry. She was a very faithful member. On July 20, 2003 God suddenly called Helen home to glory. Helen loved to laugh and would brighten any room with her smile. She is no longer with us, but her memory will always live on in our hearts and mind. One of her famous lines was, "Shake it once and rock it twice". Helen would not like anyone to be sad and crying, that is because she was funnier than fun. She leaves to mourn: ten children, Rochelle, Angela, Tamnika, Tanya, Fran, Penny, Sharon, Mark, Randy and Emmanuel; twenty-eight grandchildren, Ronika, Tonya, James, Latarchia, Rashawn, Artez, Tanesha, Dominic, Anton, Eric, Erica, Maurice, Marty, Brittany, Nefertiti, Dyghanay, La-Mya, Angel, Raymond, Shawn, Percy, Randy Jr., Michael, Lekia, Jacqueline, Andre', Damon and Elasondra; five great-grandchildren, seven sisters (one preceded her in death); two brothers (three preceded her in death)); and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Helen C. Harris

---

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Helen C. Harris

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I am deeply saddened by your loss. I know just how it feels to lose your mother. My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God keep you in His Care. Love & Prayers, Ronnie & Esther##imported-begin##Esther B. Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM