

Helen T. Cooper

February 8, 1937 - January 4, 2015

HELEN T. COOPER was born on February 8, 1937 in Baltimore, MD and was the oldest child of the late Clarence and Edith Landon. She departed this life on January 4, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She loved educating children so much that she decided to become a substitute teacher at Lexington Terrace Elementary School. She always felt it was her passion and calling to take care of people so she decided to become a private duty nurse. After years of caring for the elderly she decided to go back to her first love of education children and opened a daycare in her home until she retired. She was also a faithful member of the St. Ambrose Roman Catholic Church until her health failed and she was no longer able to attend.

She leaves to cherish in her memory: one brother, Arnold M. Landon; two sons, Melvin Jones and Donald Cooper; four daughters, Yolanda Lee, Doreen Watkins, Sheria Waters and Yvette Cooper-McNeil; two sons-in-law, Donald McNeil Sr. and David Hudson; Christina Savage (granddaughter she raised as her own); thirteen grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
