

Helen Davis

October 21, 1947 - December 28, 2020

Helen G. Davis was born to the late Moses M. James and Leas Rogers on October 21, 1947 in Howard County, Maryland.

She graduated from high school at Dunbar High. She went on to grow up and meet Eugene O. Aaron, Sr. and had two loving children, the late Kimberly E. Aaron, daughter and only living son, Eugene O. Aaron, Jr.

She held a dry cleaning job for many years that she later retired from. In doing so she helped watch over her oldest granddaughter, Christine Dashawn Aaron.

Helen was a wonderful loving woman to most people she got to know. She loved sitting around with friends and family enjoying life joking, laughing, talking and just spending time with them. The most important thing about Helen is that she loved some Kimberly, Eugene Jr and Juicy.

Helen was preceded in death by her father, Moses James; her mother, Leas Rogers; her daughter, Kimberly E. Aaron; sisters, Lottie James-Howard and Doris James; brother, Thomas Rogers; and her children's father, Eugene Aaron, Sr.

Helen leaves to cherish: her son, Eugene O. Aaron, Jr.; her sisters, Rachel A.

James-Mobley and Lynette James-Henderson; and a host of other relatives and friends.
